- e. Providing for the proper creation, maintenance, and disposition of documentary record material of the local church.

All the powers authorized and permitted by the GMC Doctrine and Discipline (Discipline) (including transitional) for a local church shall be the powers of this Church, as amended from time to time. This corporation, in conformity with the Discipline shall have the power to receive, acquire, and hold title to real and personal property and to improve, in encumber, lease, sell, convey, and dispose of all such property, including, without limitation of other powers, the power to erect and maintain buildings for the worship of God, for training and Christian faith and conduct, and for Christian social interaction, and to purchase, lease, and/or rent and otherwise acquire or build and maintain residences for the use and occupancy of its ministers.

GOVERNANCE

2.01 – The Church shall look to these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, and the Discipline (including transitional), for guidance in the operation of its affairs.

2.02 - The Discipline (including transitional) is incorporated herein as part of these bylaws by this reference, and all provisions of these bylaws shall be read in the context of conforming to the definitions, requirements, and authorizations of the Discipline, without the necessity of further specification. ARTICLE 11

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

11.01—PURPOSE

The purpose of this conflict of interest policy is to protect the Church's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or leader of the Church or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state or federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

11.02—DEFINITIONS

- A. Interested Person: Any member of an organizational unit of the Church with governing or delegated powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest.
- B. Financial interest: A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:
 - 1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Church has a transaction or arrangement;
 - 2. A compensation arrangement with the Church or with any individual or entity with which the Church has a transaction or arrangement; or
 - 3. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Church is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
 - 4. A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. A person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the pertinent organizational unit decides that a conflict of interest exists.
- C. Compensation: Direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

11.03—PROCEDURES

- A. Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board and, if applicable, members of committees with governing or delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- B. Determining whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, including any presentations by and discussion with the interested person, he or she shall leave the meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest involving the transaction or arrangement is discussed and voted upon. The remaining members (as applicable) shall decide, by a majority vote of those present, if a conflict of interest exists.
- C. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest
 - 1. The chairman of the meeting shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. After exercising due diligence, the pertinent organizational unit shall determine whether the Church can obtain, with reasonable efforts, engage a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.
3. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the pertinent organizational unit shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors present at the meeting whether the transaction or arrangement is in the best interests of the Church, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

D. Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy

1. If the pertinent organizational unit has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
2. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the other members of the organizational unit determine that the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

11.04—RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS

- A. The minutes of the meeting shall contain the names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the member's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
- B. The minutes of the meeting also shall contain the names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

11.05—COMPENSATION

- A. A voting member of the pertinent organizational unit who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Church for services rendered may not vote on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

11.07—PERIODIC REVIEWS

To ensure the organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- A. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's-length bargaining.
- B. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Church's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or an excess benefit transaction.

11.08—USE OF OUTSIDE EXPERTS

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in 11.07, the organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the relevant members of their responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

ARTICLE 12

DESIGNATED CONTRIBUTIONS

From time to time the Church, in the exercise of its religious, educational, and charitable purposes, may establish various funds to accomplish specific goals. If the Church receives a designated contribution for these funds or for any other designated purpose, the Church will attempt to honor the designation; however, all designated contributions shall be deemed advisory rather than legally mandatory in nature and shall remain subject to the exclusive control and discretion of the pastor and the Church Council. No fiduciary obligation shall be created by any designated contribution made to the Church other than to use the contribution for the general furtherance of any of the purposes stated in Articles 1 and 2.

Assets may be distributed only to tax-exempt organizations that are affiliated with the GMC.

13.04—NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Church shall not discriminate against members, applicants for membership, students, or others on the basis of race, color, nationality, or ethnic origin; however, as a religious institution it reserves the right to deny or terminate employment or to deny or terminate any other status of persons whose lifestyle, words, actions or otherwise do not align with the GMC Discipline, standards of conduct or other policies of the Church. This policy statement is not intended to waive the ministerial exception or any other exception or exemption to federal, state, or local antidiscrimination laws or regulations.

ARTICLE 14

BINDING CHRISTIAN ARBITRATION

14.01—SUBMISSION TO ARBITRATION

Members of the Church must agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the Global Methodist Church as outlined in the Discipline, or in the alternative, to binding Christian arbitration regarding any legal matters regarding the church that cannot otherwise be resolved, and expressly waive any and all rights in law and equity to bring any civil disagreement with the Church before a court of law, except that judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.
